

Contents

Participants in the meeting	iii
 BIS background papers
The banking system in emerging economies: how much progress has been made? Philip Turner	1
Banks and aggregate credit: what is new? M S Mohanty, Gert Schnabel and Pablo Garcia-Luna	11
Privatisation, consolidation and the increased role of foreign banks Dubravko Mihaljek	41
The changing nature of risks facing banks Ramon Moreno	67
Is financial stability policy now better placed to prevent systemic banking crises? Agustin Villar	99
Implications of recent changes in banking for the conduct of monetary policy David Archer	123
 Contributed papers
Banking issues in Argentina Miguel Angel Pesce	153
Improving the banking system: the Chilean experience Cristina Betancour, José De Gregorio and Alejandro Jara	163
The lessons learnt from the development and reform of China's banking sector Liu Shiyu, Wu Yi and Liu Zhengming	181
Public debt market risk: the effects on the financial system and on monetary policy: the case of Colombia Hernando Vargas H and Financial Stability Department.	189
The banking sector after 15 years of restructuring: Czech experience and lessons Vít Bárta and Miroslav Singer	203
Issues of risk-based supervision in Hong Kong William Ryback	213
Bank efficiency in the enlarged European Union Dániel Holló and Márton Nagy	217
Recent banking developments in India Vittaladas Leeladhar	237
Indonesia's banking industry: progress to date Miranda S Goeltom	243
Changes in the Israeli banking system Meir Sokoler	249
Restructuring and reforms in the Korean banking industry Soo-Myung Kim, Ji-Young Kim and Hoon-Tae Ryoo	259
Re-engineering the Malaysian financial system to promote sustainable growth Abdul Ghani Zamani	269
The Mexican financial system: reforms and evolution 1995-2005 José J Sidaoui	277

The Philippine financial system: issues and challenges Diwa C Guinigundo	295
Changes in the financing structure of the real economy in Poland - challenges for the banking sector Jerzy Pruski and Dawid Żochowski	313
Banking sector issues in Saudi Arabia Abdulrahman Al-Hamidy	327
Fostering a sound and progressive financial sector The Monetary Authority of Singapore	337
Maintaining financial stability: the experience of Thailand Tarisa Watanagase and Financial Institutions Policy Group	347
Credit growth in Turkey: drivers and challenges Erdem Başçı	363